Preferences for Section 811 PRA Units

The following property owned or managed by Hodges Development Corporation has a preference for Section 811 Project Rental Assistance (PRA) eligible residents. 811 PRA residents are referred to the property by the New Hampshire Division of Health and Human Services.

Apple Ridge Apartments has one-bedroom units and two-bedroom units with an occupancy preference for 811 PRA eligible residents

These applicants are selected from NHHFA's HUD 811 waiting list. All marketing and outreach to identify applicants for the HUD 811 program will be done by DHHS.

HUD's Enterprise Income Verification Existing Tenant Search

HUD provides Apple Ridge Apartments or management agent information about a Section 811 Project Rental Assistance applicant's current status as a recipient of rental assistance at another location. We use the Existing Tenant Search at the time we are processing your application to determine if any member of the applicant household is currently being assisted at another location. If the report identifies that the applicant or a member of the applicant's household is receiving assistance at another location, we will give the applicant the opportunity to explain any circumstances relative to being assisted at another location. This may be the case where the applicant wants to move from his/her present location or where two assisted families share custody of a minor child.

Apple Ridge Apartments or management agent will follow up with the respective assistance provider to confirm the individual's assistance participation status before admission and coordinate the move out of that location with the move into our location.

Violence Against Woman Act (VAWA) Protections

VAWA Protections apply to households applying for or receiving rental assistance payments under the Section 811 Project Rental Assistance Program.

Violence Against Woman Act Protections are not limited to women and covers victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking regardless of sex, gender identity or sexual orientation.

Apple Ridge Apartments or Management Agent will not consider incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking as serious or repeated violations of the lease or "other good cause" for termination of assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim of abuse.

If an applicant or resident or an affiliated individual of yours (your spouse, parent, brother, sister, child or a person for whom you stand in the place of parent or guardian. For example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody or control) or any individual, resident or lawful occupant living in your household is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking.

Apple Ridge Apartments or Management Agent may request in writing that the victim, or a family member on the victim's behalf, certify or provide documentation that the individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. VAWA Protections do not have to be provided for failure or refusal to provide the certification or other documentation within 14 business days, or an agreed upon extension date.

Criminal activity directly related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, engaged in by a member of a resident's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control, shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of the criminal acts.

Assistance may be terminated or a lease "bifurcated" in order to remove an offending household member from the home. Whether or not the individual is a signatory to the lease and lawful tenant, if he/she engages in a criminal act of physical violence against family members or others, he/she stands to be evicted, removed, or have his/her occupancy rights terminated. This action is taken while allowing the victim, who is a tenant or a lawful occupant, to remain.

Social Security Number Requirements for Section 811 PRA Residents

Applicants must disclose and provide verification of the complete and accurate SSN assigned to each household member. Failure to disclose and provide documentation and verification of SSNs will result in an applicant not being admitted or a tenant household's tenancy being terminated.

2. Exceptions to disclosure of SSN:

a. Individuals who do not contend eligible immigration status.

(1) Mixed Families: For projects where the restriction on assistance to noncitizens applies and where individuals are required to declare their citizenship status, proration of assistance or screening for mixed families must continue to be followed. In these instances, the owner will have the tenant's Citizenship Declaration on file whereby the individual did not contend eligible immigration status to support the individual not being subject to the requirements to disclose and provide verification of a SSN.

b. Individuals age 62 or older as of January 31, 2010, whose initial determination of eligibility was begun before January 31, 2010.

(1) The exception status for these individuals is retained even if there is a break in his or her participation in a HUD assisted program.

(2) When determining the eligibility of an individual who meets the exception requirements for SSN disclosure and verification, documentation must be obtained that verifies the applicant's exemption status. A certification from the tenant is not acceptable verification of the exemption status. This documentation must be retained in the tenant file.

Provisions for Applicants Disclosure and/or Documentation of Social Security Numbers
An applicant may not be admitted until SSNs for all household members have been disclosed and verification provided.

1. If all household members have not disclosed and/or provided verification of their SSNs at the time a unit becomes available, the next eligible applicant must be offered the available unit.
2. The applicant who has not disclosed and provided verification of SSNs for all household members must disclose and provide verification of SSNs for all household members to the owner within 90 days from the date they are first offered an available unit.
3. If the owner has determined that the applicant is otherwise eligible for admission into the property, and the only outstanding verification is that of disclosing and providing verification of the SSN, the applicant may retain his or her place on the waiting list for the 90-day period during which the applicant is trying to obtain documentation.
4. After 90 days, if the applicant has been unable to supply the required SSN and verification documentation, the applicant should be determined ineligible and removed from the waiting list

The Social Security Number requirements do not apply to:

A child under the age of 6 years old added to the applicant household within the 6-month period prior to the household's date of admission. The household will have a maximum of 90 days after the date of admission to provide the Social Security Number and adequate documentation that the Social Security Number is valid. An additional 90 days may be granted under certain circumstances. If the household does not provide the Social Security Number and adequate documentation to verify the Social Security Number within the prescribed timeframe, HUD requires that the household's tenancy be terminated.

Student Eligibility for Section 811 PRA Assistance

Student eligibility is determined at move in/initial certification and at each annual certification. Student eligibility may also be reviewed at interim certification if student status has changed since the last certification. All students are required to report any change in their student status.

Financial assistance that is provided by persons not living in the unit is not part of annual income if the student meets the Department of Education's definition of "vulnerable youth".

HUD 811 Landlord/Credit Criteria (June 2020)

HUD Handbook 4350.3 Section 4-27 B 1 states “Owners may reject an applicant for poor credit history, but owners must not reject an applicant for lack of a credit history”.

Section 4-27 B 2 a & b shows that the two primary sources owners use to determine credit history are previous landlords and credit report companies. Therefore, 811 PRA properties cannot deny or suspend an application due to the fact that they do not have a landlord history. HUD considers no history to be neutral and therefore properties cannot have a minimum requirement or exception criteria on this.

811 PRA applicants will not be required to have a co-signer for lack of credit or landlord history to comply with HUD regulations.

Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act²

To all Tenants and Applicants

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.³ The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is the Federal agency that oversees that Section 8 Rental Assistance is in compliance with VAWA. This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A HUD-approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.”

Protections for Applicants

If you otherwise qualify for assistance under HUD Section 8, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants

¹ The notice uses HP for housing provider but the housing provider should insert its name where HP is used. HUD’s program-specific regulations identify the individual or entity responsible for providing the notice of occupancy rights.

² Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

³ Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

If you are receiving assistance under HUD Section 8, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under HUD Section 8 solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household

HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION must allow the tenant who is or has been a victim and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Moving to Another Unit

Upon your request, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

(1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.

(2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit a form, or may accept another written or oral request.

(3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and the location of any move by such victims and their families.

HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION's emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

Documenting You Are or Have Been a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to "certify" that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION must be in writing, and HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form given to you by HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.
- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.

- Any other statement or evidence that HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION to release the information on a time limited basis.
- HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION or your landlord to release the information.

VAWA does not limit HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION's duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated

You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION cannot hold tenants who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, if HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

- 1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
- 2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION can demonstrate the above, HODGES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

Non-Compliance with The Requirements of This Notice

You may report a covered housing provider's violations of these rights and seek additional assistance, if needed, by contacting or filing a complaint with HUD, Norris Cotton Federal Building, 275 Chestnut Street, 4th Floor, Manchester, NH 03101-2487.

OMB Approval No. 2577-0286

Exp. 06/30/2017

Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Use of This Optional Form: If you are seeking VAWA protections from your housing provider, your housing provider may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In response to this request, you or someone on your behalf may complete this optional form and submit it to your housing provider, or you may submit one of the following types of third-party documentation:

- (1) A document signed by you and an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you have sought assistance relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse. The document must specify, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking occurred and meet the definition of “domestic violence,” “dating violence,” “sexual assault,” or “stalking” in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR 5.2003.
- (2) A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or
- (3) At the discretion of the housing provider, a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or tenant.

Submission of Documentation: The time period to submit documentation is 14 business days from the date that you receive a written request from your housing provider asking that you provide documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Your housing provider may, but is not required to, extend the time period to submit the documentation, if you request an extension of the time period. If the requested information is not received within 14 business days of when you received the request for the documentation, or any extension of the date provided by your housing provider, your housing provider does not need to grant you any of the VAWA protections. Distribution or issuance of this form does not serve as a written request for certification.

Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall be kept confidential and such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Employees of your housing provider are not to have access to these details unless to grant or deny VAWA protections to you, and such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to by you in writing in a time-limited release; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.

I agree to arbitrate all disputes and claims arising out of or relating to actions taken by SRI or its agents and assigns in acquiring and reporting information relating to my application. Before I seek arbitration, I will first provide written Notice of Claim or Dispute ("Notice") to SRI, 220 Gerry Dr., Wood Dale, IL 60191 ("Notice Address"). The Notice must: (a) describe the nature and basis of my claim or dispute; and (b) include all supporting documentation to substantiate the basis for my claim or dispute. If I do not reach an agreement with SRI to resolve the claim or dispute within 30 days after the Notice is received, I may commence an arbitration proceeding.

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no arbitration under this Agreement shall be joined to an arbitration involving any other party subject to this Agreement, whether through class arbitration proceedings or otherwise. I may bring claims against SRI in my individual capacity only, and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding.

The arbitration shall be governed by the Commercial Dispute Resolution Procedures and the Supplementary Procedures for Consumer Related Disputes of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), as modified by this Agreement, and shall be administered by the AAA. The AAA rules are available at www.adr.org or by writing to the Notice Address.
